Dear Parent/Carer

Community Event – Wednesday 25 November 2026, 4:30 pm to 6:00 pm

I am writing today to invite you to our first parent/carer Community Event of the year which is being held on Wednesday 25 November from 4:30 pm until 6:00 pm (light refreshments will be provided). You can choose to attend at any point from 4:30 pm, and do not have to stay until 6:00 pm.

These events are an opportunity for us to open the school to our wider community including parents/carers of both current students, and parents/carers of our feeder schools.

Following valued feedback from parents/carers, the focus for our first event is on mental wellbeing and support for students and families. During the event, you will have the opportunity to speak with the following:

- Colleagues from the Taverham High School Student Support Team
- Members of the student ELF (Everybody's Listening Friend) team
- Mrs T Gardiner – Assistant Headteacher on the topic of Trauma Informed Practice
- Colleagues from the Taverham High School SEN Team

Additionally, we will be joined by the following external agencies:

- The Early Help Team for Broadland
- The Benjamin Foundation
- Youth Advisory Board
- The Matthew Project
- Nelson's Journey

We will also have colleagues from Taverham Library attending to discuss the various activities and groups that run from the Library along with providing an opportunity for students, parents/carers to sign up for Library Cards.
